

Orquesta Buena Vista Social Club

Tuesday 13 October

Featuring trumpeter Guajiro Mirabal, trombonist Jesús 'Aguaje' Ramos, guitarist, pianist and organist Manuel Galbán and laud player Barbarito Torres.

An extraordinary line-up of Buena Vista Social Club stalwarts, together in an 11 piece band direct from Havana to present some of the finest Cuban music ever made.

This special concert takes audiences on a musical excursion from the original Buena Vista Social Club recordings in 1996 up to the present day. Each of these artists has an individual take on the gamut of Cuban Music, and they've each put their own stamp on son montunos, danzón, cha cha cha, boleros and Cuban jazz.

After eleven years as the backbone of the Buena Vista Social Club, as Ibrahim Ferrer's live band and recording Grammy winning albums, this esteemed group gets the chance to show their skills and their passion for music on the Royal Albert Hall stage.
